

disclosure, if the subscriber is notified of such order by the to whom the order is directed.” As a result, Comcast cannot comply with GW Equity’s request unless this Court issues an order that complies with Section 551.

3. GW Equity asks the Court to issue an order authorizing it to conduct immediate discovery on Comcast, located at 1500 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102, and whose telephone number is (215) 564-0132.

4. GW Equity seeks documents that Comcast has in its possession relating to the identity of the following subscriber email address: (1) hurtbygwequity@comcast.net; (2) dmccormick@comcast.net; and (3) dmccormick777@comcast.net. At this time, GW Equity is not aware of the identity of these subscribers and, therefore, is unable to provide notice of this action to those individuals.

5. Specifically, GW Equity seeks the following documents containing information that refer or relate to the individuals who have the registered email addresses listed above: (1) all computer disks or drives, or information stored on any computer, server, or electronic storage device; (2) all hard copy documents that refer or relate to the individuals; (3) all hard copy or electronic documents that came from, once belonged to, or were copied from the individuals; and (4) hard copy or electronic documents that were sent to or were copied to the individuals who have the registered user names.

6. GW Equity needs to obtain these documents from Comcast because it is the only entity in possession of such information. This information will allow GW Equity to determine what individual or individuals made the postings that are the subject of the instant lawsuit.

7. Comcast is unopposed to the relief requested in this motion and is willing to comply with an order issued by this Court. See Exhibit B (“We hope that the time and expense associated with objecting to the Subpoena will be unnecessary in light of Comcast's willingness to comply with a court order . . ."). Defendants are likewise unopposed to the relief requested in this motion.

PRAYER

For these reasons, GW Equity asks the Court to order Comcast to comply with the subpoena served upon it and proceed with discovery and production of the requested documents immediately.
